Dedication

As our scholastic endeavors shape themselves to maturity, we review the happiness and knowledge acquired from our twelve fruitful school years and sincerely hope many, many more students will be able proudly to say, "I, too, am a Jefferson graduate."

With this in mind we now dedicate this volume of the Jeffersonian to all future classes of The Jefferson Township High School. We trust they will all truly exemplify the Jefferson traditions before a justly proud community.

SENIOR WILL

We the class of "51" of the Jefferson High School, of the County of Adams, of the State of Indiana; being of sound body and mind, (we hope) in a state of confusion after four long and hard years of work do hereby publish our last will and testament. We now recall any and all promises made by us either as a group or individual in answer to various requests by underclassmates. TO WIT:

I, Norman Haines, will my Bookkeeping ability to Marilyn Brewster, my excuse blanks to Dick Keller, and my books and desk to Jack Wendel.

I, Lyle Tumbleson, will some of my height to Jack Wendel, my paper and pencils to Gilly Kuhn, and my friendly disposition to anyone who needs it.

I, Ruth Lehman, will my spectacles to Bud Ross, my blonde hair to Virginia Brewster and to the Junior boys my notebook paper and writing supplies, and my desk to keep them in.

I, Betty Wendel, will to Larry Miller my curly hair, my height to Gilly Kuhn, my place on the cheering squad to Virginia Brewster.

I, Gerald Miller, will my ability to control my temper on the basketball floor to Jack Wendel and to John Overholser my ability to play the pivot.

I, Floreine Luginbill, will my good grades to John Overholser, my ability to get along with the teachers to Bud Ross, and my office work to Richard Keller.

I, Donald Gerber, will to Larry Miller my car, but he has to open it up in low gear, to Richard Keller my typing ability and to Bud Ross my good deportment grades.

I, Patsy Johnson, will my ability to skip classes to anybody who can get by with it; my mischief to Gilly Kuhn and my slim figure to Marilyn Brewster.

I, Anna Smitley, will my drawer in the typing room to Larry Miller and I hope that he doesn't have as much trouble finding his paper and book as I do; and my ability to eat in study hall to anyone who can get by with it.

I, Darrel Kuhn, will my wavy blonde hair to John Overholser and my sense of humor to Virginia Brewster, providing she uses it as it should be used.

SENIOR HISTORY

Darrel Kuhn, Norman Haines, Lyle Tumbleson, Floreine Luginbill, Ruth Lehman, Patsy Johnson and Anna Smitley started their schooling in 1939 at Jefferson Township School. In the years gone by they have gained and lost classmates. Those joining them in their Freshman year and completing high school with them are: Betty Wendel, Donald Gerber and Gerald Miller.

This fall when the class met with Mr. Erwin, their appointed sponsor, they chose Darrel Kuhn as President; Betty Wendel, Vice-President; Floreine Luginbill, Secretary; and Anna Smitley as class Treasurer.

Representing the Seniors on the Varsity team are: Darrel Kuhn, Gerald Miller, Lyle Tumbleson, and Norman Haines. Betty Wendel and Ruth Lehman bring honor to the class as Cheerleaders.

This year has been a busy and enjoyable one for the Seniors. They have accomplished much; but the greatest in their sight is the finishing of their high school education.

JUNIOR CLASS

Row 1: Richard Keller, Marilyn Brewster, Virginia Brewster, Larry Miller
Row 2: Lindell Ross, Gilly Kuhn, Jack Wendel, John Overholser

Class History

In September of 1950, we nine (Margie Smitley moved) "Jolly Juniors" entered J. H. S. to further our education.

We met with our sponsor, Mr. Boller and elected the following class officers: President, Richard Keller; Vice-President, Jack Wendel; Secretary-Treasurer, Marilyn Brewster.

Richard Keller, Jack Wendel, Gilly Kuhn, John Overholser, Larry Miller, and Lindell Ross have all done a good job on the basketball floor and we are proud of them

We think the Junior Fall Festival was a great success.

JUNIOR PROPHECY

In perusing a recent issue of the "Chattanooga Choo Choo Gazette," I found some interesting news about the members of the Jefferson Graduating Class of 1951. Patsy Johnson is living on Lake Shore Drive in Chicago, where she divides her time between her devoted lawyer husband, their three children and her modeling work. Patsy's halo of blond hair and winsome smile may be seen in tooth paste ads in various national magazines from coast to coast.

Darrel Kuhn is Jefferson Township's most progressive "pay dirt" farmer. Darrel is operating a goat and bee farm. He personally delivers milk and honey to nearby towns by helicopter. Darrel is married and has a charming set of blond, twin daughters. Darrel plans to have his daughters major in Home Economics at Purdue hoping that they will learn to prepare meals as delectable as those he formerly enjoyed at the Palmer House.

Don Gerber is a proof reader for the Chicago Daily News. Don has been so absorbed in his work that until very recently he has inadvertently eluded the silken manacles of matrimony. Rumor has it that an attractive heiress is casting coy glances in Don's direction and it is expected that Don will shortly succumb to her blandishments and be, not to unwillingly, "hailed" down the aisle to the altar.

Ruth Lehman is cashier in her husband's Super Duper Market located on State Road 27 just outside of Berne, where she meets customers with her winsome smile. The store features a "leader" every Saturday which draws customers from miles around. This is a delicious ginger snap wafer made from a secret recipe which Ruthie bakes at home after store hours.

Norman Haines, it seems, is one of Jefferson's more illustrious sons. His name is found in "Who's Who", due possibly to having written several financially successful agricultural books. He is known in the community as our "Gentleman" farmer due no doubt to the fact that he commutes, on his scooter, between his farm here and Purdue University where he lectures to the Agriculture boys on the latest practical "wrinkles" in farming.

Shortly after graduation, Anna and Betty both married the ardent service men who had been haunting their steps for the past several months. In order to be with their husbands the girls both joined the W. A. C. S. Anna obtained an officer's commission and has succeeded in getting Betty elevated to officer's ranking also. The girls have found though that this has its drawbacks because their husbands find it humiliating to have to salute them on meeting, and furthermore, the girls have been reprimanded on several occasions by their superior officer for having been seen too often consorting with enlisted men (their husbands of course) which the Army considers below the dignity of the rank of an officer. The girls are now frantically appealing to their old Jefferson friends to exert political influence at Washington in order to have their husbands advanced in rank. Leave it to Anna and Betty to find a way to stay with their husbands.

Lyle Tumbleson is doing research work for Uncle Sam in Northern Alaska. Lyle, it seems, is doing his utmost to win one of the local Eskimo girls there. The only shadow over the romance seems to be a peculiar propensity of the young lady's mother to regale Lyle with liberal helpings of blubber during his frequent calls at the igloo. She apparently thinks Lyle a trifle thin. Lyle, poor boy, naturally finds this redundancy of Eskimo cuisine somewhat more than a bit disturbing. Lyle is planning to spend his honeymoon in the environs of good old "Jeff" so that he and Norman can collaborate on inventing a machine which will help High School kids get their book-keeping.

Floreine, after receiving her diploma from Nurses' Training, has taken a position as supervisor of a military hospital. Many of the boys it appears are falling heir to minor ailments, battle fatigue, etc., so that they can bask in the effulgence of Floreine's smiling countenance while convalescing. It seems that a certain individual referred to as "Junior" did it up right and broke his leg so that he could prolong his stay in the hospital for six months. What the outcome of all these incipient romances will be, of course, has Floreine's friends guessing.

Gerald Miller, according to report, has tried many different kinds of work but always returns to his first love, basketball. Gerald is now the outstanding player on the famous Piston team and is known by his friends as the "Flying Miller", by his opponents as "Miller the Killer."

We heartily congratulate our classmates on their achievements and wish them all the happiness of a full and satisfying life.

Row 1: Imogene Miller, Jim Patch, Francis Wellman, Bob Switzer, Sharon Teeple

Row 2: Patty Kelly, Glen Gerber, Dick Stuber, Donald Charleston, Barbara Lehman

Class History

In the fall of 1950 our group of ten met with Richard Harris, Class Sponsor, and elected Glen Gerber, President; Bob Switzer, Vice-President; Pat Kelly, Secretary; and Sharon Teeple, Treasurer.

On September 22, we Sophomores, initiated the Freshman and at the end of the day, treated them by taking them a truck ride to Sunset Skating Rink where they spent the evening. They later returned to Pat Kelly's for refreshments. A part of the initiation was having to clean the school grounds.

We held our class party at the school on October 17, with Mr. and Mrs. Harris and daughter, Cynthia as guests.

Bob Switzer, Dick Stuber, Don Charleston, and Francis Wellman are members of the basketball team. Jim Patch is Student Manager and Barbara Lehman serves as Cheerleader.

We have all enjoyed our first two years of High School and hope we enjoy our last two just as much.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Row 2: Marilyn Charleston, Richard Butcher, Linda McCain, David Hammit, Josephine Uhrick, Roland Tumbleson

Row 3: Larry Coblentz, Norman Wall, Jean Weaver, Clifford Kuhn

Class History

On September 2, 1950 a group of seventeen green freshmen met with our sponsor, Miss Sprunger and elected Linda McCain, President; Paul Stolz, Vice-President; Roland Tumbleson, Secretary; and Larry Coblentz, Treasurer.

Our class was not to be outdone in parties. We had our first party at the school and had a delicious and attractive supper. Chili was the main dish. We think our Initiation Day was a success

We are also well represented on the basketball floor. The boys playing on the team are Dick Butcher, Paul Stolz, David Hammit, Orla Kuhn, and Roland Tumbleson. We are also honored by having Geraldine Smitley as Cheerleader and Norman Wall as Student Manager.

STRANGE COINCIDENCE

Wife: "Henry, why don't you stop? You ran over a man!"

Husband: "That's all right, dear. He's the one that guaranteed to teach me in two lessons how to run this car."

IMITATING HIS SENIORS

Lady caller at the door: "I saw an advertisement of your rooms to let. Have you any rats or mice here?"

Young hopeful, who answered the door-bell for his busy mother: "No, but I think we could get some."

ABSENT-MINDED

The professor, upon returning home late at night, heard a noise, and asked:

"Is some one there?"

"No," came the answer from a burglar under the bed.

"That's strange," mused the professor. "I was positive some one was under my bed."

SO LONG

JOKES

Jack: Do you know why the coach flooded the gymnasium?

John: No, why did he?

Jack: So he could send in a sub.

Lyle: Didn't I tell you to notice when the soup boiled over?

Norman: I did. It was half past ten.

Anna: Why don't you "shoo" these flies?

Patsy: It's quieter to let them run around barefooted.

Ruth: Do you know how to get Floreine's goat?

Patsy: No.

Ruth: Watch where Jr. Teeple ties it.

Norman: What does the ocean say to the shore?

Lyle: I don't know.

Norman: It doesn't say anything; it just waves.

Anna: When we are married we must have no secrets from each other. You must tell me everything.

Paul: But-er-really, I don't know everything.

Mother: Ruth is like a furnace when it comes to practicing her music lessons.

Robert: You mean she gets all steamed up about it?

Mother: No, if you don't watch her she'll go out.

Darrel: Why did the moron tiptoe in front of the medicine cabinet?

Betty: I don't know. Why did he?

Darrel: He didn't want to wake the sleeping pills.

Floreine: (Indignantly after the crash) "I turned the way I signaled."

Don: "I know it, that's what fooled me."

Gerald: Is your girl talkative?

Don: Not exactly. But I got a cold and lost my voice for three days, and she never found it out.

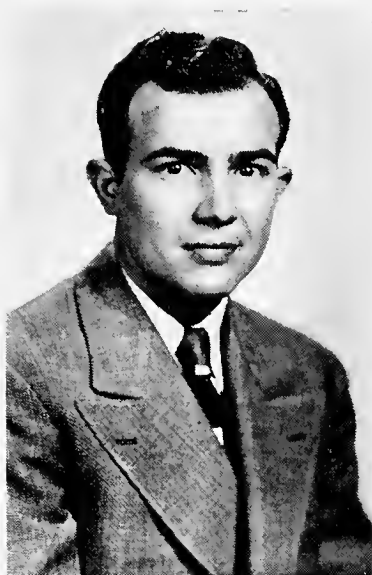

Norman: Don't drive so fast around the corners. It makes me nervous.

Lyle: You won't get scared if you do as I do—shut your eyes when you come to the corners.

Proud Father: The man who marries my daughter will get a prize.

Bud: Could I see it, please?

BRIGHT FRESHMAN CREVICES

How uncommon is common sense.
Honest fellows steal kisses.
Mysteries—Love, women and hash.
Some can't think—others won't.
If you are up against it, go around.
The weak days—Yesterday and tomorrow.
Love is a sweet dream—Marriage the alarm clock.
"I" in idea is what counts.
Make light of your troubles by keeping them dark.
Musically speaking, snoring is "sheet" music.
A lie is legless, but it travels fast.
A kiss is nothing divided by two.
A wild night always has its "mourn."
Many an open mind is empty.
Many are dead, but they won't lie down.

Reference To Candids

1. Our means of transportation.
2. Freshman initiation.
3. Business is booming!
4. New pupils.
5. Ready to go.
6. Young musician.
7. Ain't love grand?
8. Three young hopefuls.
9. Camouflage.
10. Latest creation.
11. What did we do to deserve this?
12. Ready for another day.
13. Busy Juniors.
14. Four cute children.
15. Look at the birdie.

★ ★ ★ ★

JAIL-LESS CRIMES

Killing time.
Hanging pictures.
Stealing bases.
Choking off the speaker.
Running over a new song.
Smothering a laugh.
Setting fire to a heart.
Murdering the English language.

★ ★ ★ ★

HER GOOD PLAY

He, as the team goes by: "Look! There goes Ruggles, the half-back.
He'll soon be our best man."

She, grabbing his arm: "Oh Jack! This is so sudden!"
